

BRR Architecture, a leader and award winner in global retail and commercial architecture, is seeking a highly skilled, senior level Marketing professional. This position will work closely with Principals to identify and implement marketing and business development objectives, and strategies and tactics to achieve those objectives. Additional accountabilities: direct the firm's collateral materials; oversee and maximize the firm's website and on-line marketing opportunities; assist regional offices with marketing strategy; and develop and manage firm seminars and events.

Requirements include excellent communication and computer skills; management of website; strong strategic journalism; marketing, communications or related degree; 10+ years creative marketing experience with an architectural firm or A/E/C industry experience preferred, will consider agency, professional services or corporate marketing experience.

Please send resume, including cover letter, to: careers@brrarch.com. Get to know us at brrarch.com. EOE